USING SOAP SPOILS THE HAIR

Soap should be used very sparingv. if at all, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and greaseless), is cheaper and better than soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughwater and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather. which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at any pharmacy, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

Lime-Loss in Tuberculosis In the Journal of the American Medical Association (January 17, 1914) was the following:

"It has been many times stated that in tuberculosis or in the pretuberculosis stage an increased amount of calcium (lime) is lost both in the urine and feces. In fact, a demineralization has been thought to be a forerunner of the development of tuberculosis."

"Forced feeding of tuberculosis pa-tients and the enormous amount of eggs and milk once given such pa-flents are not now considered advis-able by a large number of physicians who are specializing in the treat-ment of pulmonary tuberculosis."

If tuberculors is due to a loss of lime from he system, the success of Eckman's Altera-ive in the treatment of this disease may be as, in part, to the fact that it contains a ine sait so combined with other valuable in-predicts as to be easily assimilated. Always we have urged users of Eckman's firerative to attend strictly to matters of

In addition to rest and proper diet, some effective remedial agent seems to be needed, and in numerous cases of apparent recovery from tuberculosis and kindred throat and brouchtal affections Eckman's Alterative has applied this need. It does not contain opiates, narcotics or nabit-forming drugs, so it is safe to try. Your linguist has it or will order it, or you can get t from us direct.

WALTER HUTCHINS ENDS

Describes Principal Events in Career of Financier Whose Will Is in Dispute.

Walter Hutchins' narrative of the life of his father, Stilson Hutchins, was continued this morning under direct examination of R. Ross Perry, senior counsel for the defense in the effort to have the last will of the dead financer declared void, which is being made by Lee Hutchins in the District Supreme Court before Justice Anderson. The infinite detail of this narra-tive by Mr. Hutchins, caveatee in the case and generally recognized to be the most important witness for the deense, has necessitated a certain tedium of procedure and at the close of this norning's session the principal events in the testator's life in 1905 had just een completed.

the testator's life in 1995 had just been completed.

The testimony dealt principally with business affairs in which the witness was associated with his father. The telegraphone, the Purity Ice Company, the Marine Paint Company, a moving picture enterprise and the numerous realty deals of Mr. Hutchins were among those mentioned.

At the opening of court the witness expressed a desire to correct certain inaccuracies in his yesterday's testimony. He explained that while yesterday he had contradicted the assertion of William J. Dante, trustee for the Hutchins estate, that in 1904 he obtained a power of attorney from Lee Hutchins which enabled him to consummate the telegraphone deal, careful consideration had led him to believe that he had been wrong. Mr. Hutchins explained that his brother, Lee, held a general power of attorney for his father at that time, and that he, Walter, fearing that his power was not sufficient to insure security in the important deal, asked Lee to give him additional control. This, said the witness, was done, and it was with this power that the transaction was ultimately consummated.

Regretted Three Steps Taken.

Regretted Three Steps Taken.

Walter Hutchins told of a conversaion with his father in the spring of 1905, in which the latter expressed ex treme regret for three steps he had taken in regard to his wife, Rose Keeltaken in regard to his wife, Rose Reeling Hutchins. The first of these, according to the witness, was the destruction of an anti-nuptial contract he had with his wife. The second was the showing of an undesignated will to Mrs. Hutchins, which led to her expressing dissatisfaction with the provision made for her, and a demand that the stone house at Mr. Hutchins' summer home, Governors Island, be deeded to her. This, Mr. Hutchins told his son Walter, had been "foolishly done," and within six months Mrs. Hutchins had mortgaged the property.

The investment of Stilson Hutchins in an alleged gold mine near Paterson, N. J., was brought out in the course of the testimony. Gold was never found, the witness explained, and subsequently the land, which was held by his father as security for his investments, was disposed of.

Many letters from Stilson Hutchins to the witness were put in evidence in the course of the narrative. These were principally concerned with intricate business matters and a discussion of the witness swore that while his father was in Washington in the fall of 1905 he put in four or fleve hours of work each day at his office. ing Hutchins. The first of these, ac-

Connected With Government Service Since 1863-Funeral Services Tomorrow.

Albert U. Wyman, eighty-one years old, former treasurer of the United ment service since 1863, died yesterday afternoon at his apartment in the Savoy, 2804 14th street northwest. Funeral services are to be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow at the apartment house. Interment is to be in Oak Hill emetery, and is to be private. Mr. Wyman was a native of Canada, founder and publisher of a newspaper and in early life Mr. Wyman himself engaged in the printing business. Following the removal of the family to Madison, Wis., Mr. Wyman, together with a brother, was appointed state printer by the legislature of Wisconsin.

In 1856 Mr. Wyman went to Omaha and engaged in the banking business, and from there came to Washington in the early sixties. He was appointed to a position in the Treasury Department April 23, 1863, and from then until his death, with the exception of several periods, was connected with the government service. Through the various grades of clerk, assistant cashier and cashier he worked himself up, until in 1876 he was appointed treasurer of the United States for one year In 1883 he was again appointed treasurer and continued in that capacity for two years.

Gen. Wood Tells Gen. Scott None of His Staff Connected.

Maj. Gen. Wood, commanding the Eastern Department of the army, in a letter to Brig. Gen. Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff of the army, denies that any one in his department has at any time had any official connection with the American Legion movement to raise reservists.

"No one at these headquarters," says Gen. Wood, "has, or has had, any of-heial connection with the American Legion, socialied, of which I sent you

Gen. Wood's letter was a personal communication to Gen. Scott. Secretary Garrison still is awaiting the report which he called upon Gen. Wood to make concerning the reported connection of army officers with the American Legion
